ADVERTISERS, did you ever stop to think of the value of the typewritten letter as an advertising medium? The success of this sort of advertising lies in the fact that even the business man, who invariably throws all ordinary printed circulars in the waste basket without notice, will take time to read a letter that he thinks some one has taken the trouble to write him. See us about it. It's inexpensive. BYRON S. ADAMS, Prompt Printer, 512 11th st.

BISMARCK IS SAFE.

Dog Not in Danger Until He Has Bitten Three People.

Judge Bradley has decided in the case of Ernst Gerstenberg that the police regulations relative to dangerous dogs are repugnant to the act of Congress of 1878, and that the act of Congress is the law here on the subject.

Mr. Gerstenberg was fined in the Police Court in August of last year for keeping a dangerous dog, called Bismarck, and the court ordered the execution of the animal. The owner of the dog endeavored to obtain from the District Supreme Court a writ of prohibition, but subsequently that movement was abandoned, and the case was carried to that court on a writ of certiorari, Attorney Thos. M. Fields arguing the case before Judge Bradley for Mr Gerstenberg. The judge overruled the mo-tion of the district attorney to quash the writ, ordering the proceedings in the Poice Court to be quashed, and holding that the act of Congress of 1878 is the law. That act provides that if the owner of a dangerous dog allows it to run at large and it bites an individual at any other place than on the premises of the owner he shall be punished by a fine. For the second offense the owner shall be punished in like manner, and for the third of-fense the Commissioners shall order the dog shot, in addition to a third fine to be paid by the owner.

Bismarck will now probably emerge from a forced retirement of a year or more.

Paying Election Bets.

Wheelbarrow election bets continue to be paid, and yesterday evening Mr. J. V. Leaman of 41 L street northeast, who was sure of Bryan's election, wheeled Mr. J. E. Bonini of 731 North Capitol street, who was equally sure of McKinley's victory, from the latter's residence by way of E street and New Jersey avenue to the Capitol, thence to the treasury by way of Pennsylvania avenue and back to the starting place, along New York avenue and H street. Every time Mr. Leaman stopped or tipped over the wheelbarrow he was compelled by the terms of the wager to ask Mr. Bonini what he would have in a liquid way. The leniency of Mr. Bonini in regard to this part of the bet was com-mendable in the extreme, for there is no telling what would have happened if he had insisted on a rigorous observance of

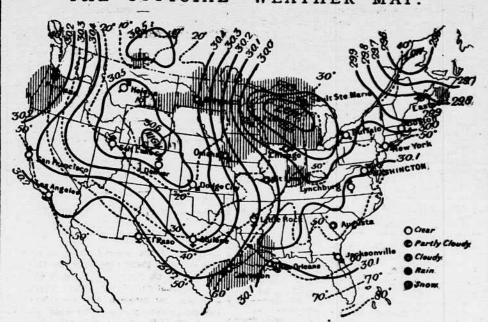

Mr. Michael Brennan occupied the seat of honor in a wheelbarrow which was propelled by Mr. Harry Nolan, from 6th to 7th street on H street northeast and return several times, while John Pyles wheeled W. Emmet Hooper from 4th and Maryland avenue northeast to 4th and Pennsylvania avenue southeast by way of 4th Illegal Voters Punished by the Police Court Magistrate.

Some of the Cases Postponed-Other

The police court was last night crowded when the cases of the alleged flegal voters were called, quite a number of local politicians of both parties being present. Among those present were Frank E. Anderson, Henry Strass, Park Agnew and Joseph Crupper. Commonwealth Attorney Marbury appeared for the commonwealth and Mr. A. W. Armstrong appeared for the de-

The first case called was that of Thomas Bierden, colored, who was charged with having been convicted of petty larceny in the corporation court March 13, 1880, consequently illegally registered. His case was important witness to appear.

The cases of George Johnson, W. A. Parker, Armstead Harris, John Green, Joseph Beckham and Carter Bradford, all colored, charge, convicted of petty larceny, consequently illegally registered, were also continued to get the records of the corporation court. poration court.

The case of Malcolm Hoffy, charged with voting illegally, not being a resident of the state, was continued until Friday night next. W. E. Hobday, Henry Harris and Henry Washington, colored, were fined $20 each and thirty days in jail for illegal registering, Hobday being a non-resident and Washington and Harris having been convicted of petty larceny. A Serious Accident.

Frank Hall, a motorman o n the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Electric railway, met with a serious accident at the Four-mile Run power house vestertluy. Hall was on a motor car which had been rought from the shed for service. The current had been taken from the wires and he was standing on the front platform waiting for an employe to adjust a switch. While this was being done he stooped for the purpose of making some suggestion, thus bringing his head close to the motor crank, which, unfortunately, was not se-cured in the notches. While in this position the current was applied from the power house and the crank revolved immediately with terrific force, striking Mr. Hall in the face, breaking his jaw bone in two places and bruising his chin. He was picked up unconscious and brought to his home on South Fairfax street, in this city, where Dr. Klipstein attended him.

After the Postmastership. About the only political plum in Alexandria is the post office, and now that the e.ection is over and the republican party will be in control, a number of prominent republicans have their eyes upon it. DENIES HE IS INSANE. The Case of Isadore Goldsmith Con tinued by Judge Hagner. Upon a writ of habeas corpus issued by Chief Justice Bingham, Judge Hagner had produced before him today Isadore L. Goldsmith, who, as stated in The Star, was arrested here yesterday by the local police authorities at the request of Dr. D. D. Richardson, superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Insane Asylum, at Norristown, Pa., the superintendent claiming that the man had escaped from that institution the 16th of last month. The unfortunate mar was represented by Attorney J. Altheus Johnson, Assistant District Attorney Armes appearing on behalf of Chief of Police Moore. Police Moore.

The petition of Goldsmith, a young traveling salesman of Philadelphia, stated that he had been confined in the Pennsylvania asylum from June 19, 1895, until he escaped, when, after visiting Atlantic City, he came to Washington, arriving here Sunday last. He claimed therein that he had been committed to the asylum without having been properly declared insane, and also claimed that his arrest here was without warrant The answer of Chief of Police Moore wa to the effect that he had arrested Gold-smith at the request of the superintendent of the Pennsylvania asylum, and appended to the answer was a copy of an order made by the Pennsylvania court of oyer and terminer, which order recited that the man had been committed to the asylum June 19, 1895, by the court, to be held therein long as he remains of unsound mind, or until discharged by due process of law. The answer of Maj. Moore also recited that Goldsmith's mental condition had been in-quired into last month by a Pennsylvania court in habeas corpus proceedings, the writ being dismissed and the man returned the asylum. Mr. Johnson stated to Judge Hagner that he would not admit the allegations of the answer, and at his request the judge continued the case until 11 a.m. Tuesday, November 17, the court directing that meantime Goldsnith be detained in St. Elizabeth's Inspin Asylum beth's Insane Asylum.

The Horseshoers and the "Bosses." Messrs. D. C. Hartley, W. O. Gingell, F. Faynter, B. J. Lynch, M. Walshe, S. Ratz and Thomas Gleason, members of the executive board of Journeymen Horseshoers' Local Union, No. 17, write to The Evening Star, in relation to a recent communication made to the Central Labor Union by the Boss Horseshoers' Union, the journeymen herseshoers asking the public to recognize their shop card, which, they say, appears in every union shop. The communication to The Star says that the journeymen to The Star says that the journeyment to The Star says that the journeyment herseshoers have been organized and chartered for years, and that their action, of the journeyment was made by the bosses' which complaint was made by the bosses' union, was simply in the line of taking care of their own organization. The journeymen deny the conspiracy alleged to exist between the old bosses' union and the tourneymen in the statement of the sojourneymen in the statement of the sccalled young bosses' union. They say they do not recognize the latter organization, and that the conduct of its members is in direct conflict with the interests of organ-
